

2017 DOMESTIC FEES FOR SWISS NATIONALS AND B/C PERMIT HOLDERS

Glion Institute of Higher Education in Switzerland offers the following domestic fee reductions to new students who hold, or students whose sponsors hold, a Swiss passport or B/C permit.*

Undergraduate Programs

New students applying for a Bachelor program in Hospitality Management or Event, Sport and Entertainment Management in Switzerland are offered a special domestic fee that reduces tuition by 25%.

Postgraduate Programs

New students applying for a Postgraduate Diploma in Hospitality Management or Event, Sport and Entertainment Management in Switzerland are offered a special domestic fee that reduces tuition by 20%.

Master of Science or MBA Programs

New students applying for a Master of Science or an MBA program in Switzerland are offered a special domestic fee that reduces tuition by 25%.

For more information and to estimate the cost of your chosen program, please contact us at:

Glion Institute of Higher Education - Enrollment Management Department

Route du Lac 118, 4th floor, CH-1815 Clarens - Switzerland

Tel: +41 (0)21 989 26 77

Email: info@glion.edu

Note: The above domestic fee reductions are valid for the entire duration of the program, for new students only. Domestic fee reductions apply to tuition fees only, excluding application fees, accommodation, board options, learning material, insurance and all other costs.

*Sponsors holding a B/C diplomatic permit cannot benefit from this scholarship.